Meet at St Mark's URC at 4 pm to dress in costumes from biblical times and join the procession. This is an opportunity to fulfil our prayer to "strengthen our witness"

Today we welcome Rev Bob Burston to preside at our services.

TEARFUND'S "BIG QUIZ NIGHT"

Saturday 17th November at 7.30pm in the parish hall. Entry costs £5.00 per head (tea, coffee and refreshments included), all proceeds going to Tearfund. There will be a licensed bar and a Traidcraft Stall and it promises to be a fun evening. Please invite your friends and family to support this worthy cause.

Our Christmas Fayre is on 24th November and this year it will be held in the morning starting at 11am (setting up from 9am)

There will be the usual array of stalls and donations of items would be most welcome for the tombola, bottle pull (anything useful in a bottle not neccessarily alcohol) DVDs for the book and DVD stall, bric a brac, raffle items, scarves and handbags for Nancy's stall. Items for the home baking stall are also needed and it is really helpful if they are priced by the person who baked them.

MINCE PIES also required as refreshments.

If you can help on the day please see one of the Events Team (Anne H. Jill and Will)

See you there.

For your prayers

Please remember Reign Harrison Boulton aged 6 mths, Ellie-Louise Flanighan aged 5 yrs and Saskia Rodrigues Bow Allerston aged 18 mths who are being christened next week. Pray that they grow to know the love of God in their lives.
